About to Decapitate Colonel Williams.

Since the return of the Second Regiment, Kentucky State Guard, from the World's Fair encampment, in St. Louis, the information has leaked out that Col. Roger D. Williams, commanding the regiment, was nearly defeated of re-election by the members.

While at the encampment it is alleged that Col. Gaines, in charge of the camp, ordered an election for Colonel by the Second Regiment, and gave the men one hour in which to hold it.

When the vote was being taken, it was shown that out of the nine companies, seven and one-half had voted for Major J. Embury Allen, of Lexington, for Colonel. As soon as it became known how the vote stood, the election was called off altogether.

This has caused a profound sensation in Kentucky military circles, as the time for electing a Colonel for the Second Regiment is long past due.

Harmonious Throughout!

The New York Democratic Convention adjourned at Saratoga Wednesday afternoon after nominating by unanimous action a State ticket headed by Justice D. Cady Herrick, of Albany, for Governor. Justice Herrick was agreed upon as a compromise candidate, and the convention was harmonious throughout. A notable feature of the convention was the disappearance of all open evidences of the factional warfare between Murphy and McCarren and their respective adherents. The convention was large and notably enthusiastic.

A Big Scheme.

A gigantic deal is mapped out by the Tobacco Growers' Association. President Hawkins says the Louisville Leaf Tobacco Exchange have agreed to advance between one and two million dollars to the Association with which to buy the present crop of tobacco and store it at Louisville when an Eastern syndicate will purchase it. This would give the Association and the growers complete control of the market.
